

FLAT REFUSAL FROM MEXICO

Huerta Makes Emphatic Refusal to U.S.

CONGRESS CALLED

To Hear Wilson Ask Authority To Enforce.

Washington, April 19.—Huerta has denied the United States and refused to order a salute of salute to the American flag in his answer to President Wilson's ultimatum.

The President, in reply, will appear before a joint session of Congress tomorrow afternoon and ask for authority to use the army and navy to enforce the demands of the United States. This request will be granted immediately, and orders will be issued for the blockading and seizure of all Mexican ports on the east and west coasts of the country.

The proposal, while not in itself an act of war, is almost certain to result in hostilities, and officials in Washington to-night have accepted as inevitable an open declaration of war with Mexico.

The news of Huerta's refusal was being flashed by wireless at a late hour to-night to Admiral Badger, commanding the Atlantic fleet, now hurrying towards Mexico, and to the commanding officer of the American war vessels already in Mexican waters. They will not, however, make any definite move against Mexico until Congress has acted to-morrow. With the passage of the joint resolution by the legislative branch, orders will go forth for immediate action. The ports of Tampico and Vera Cruz will be the first to receive the official communication to Mexico City will be interrupted and an effort will be made to starve Huerta into submission through control of the Cossacks' supplies and his supplies of ammunition.

Huerta's defiance came after a day of haggling by him and his son, after "President Wilson had again demanded in the most emphatic terms that his demands for a salute were unconditional." The exact date of the demand is not known, but it was sent to Secretary Bryan from White Sulphur Springs, and waited until all hope on the part of Huerta for a modification of the Government's ultimatum were gone.

"Tell O'Shaughnessy our demands are unconditional in every detail," wrote Woodrow Wilson.

WANTED A PROTOCOL.

The vigorous telegram from the President was caused by an eventful hour demand on the part of Huerta that he be received through Charge O'Shaughnessy, in Mexico City, should enter into a formal protocol, giving the United States the right to demand what would fire a return salute to the Mexican salute of apology. President Wilson informed Huerta that the United States would accept a single assurance beyond the statement contained in Admiral May's original demand on the Mexican Government, which stipulated that a Mexican war vessel would return the Mexican salute.

Huerta had signified his willingness to yield his demand for a simultaneous salute provided this Government would grant his request for formal assurance as to 21 guns in return.

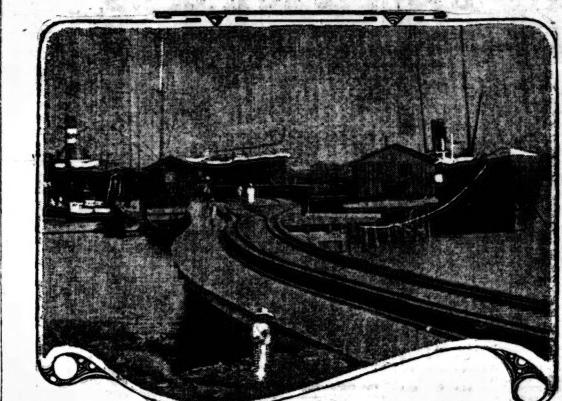

The naval and military of the State, War and Navy Buildings were places of excitement while word was being awaited from Mexico City, where the Spanish War was to begin or end for this Government. Not since the Spanish War days has Washington been confronted at such a time with a situation so grave.

The President's ultimatum to Huerta expired at 7:00 o'clock, Washington time, but it was not until almost 8:30 that the news was received that an important message from O'Shaughnessy began to tick in over the State Department wire.

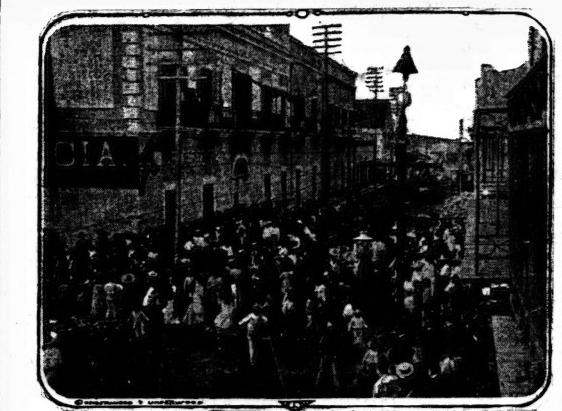

Secretary Bryan wired Mr. Tammey had hardly recovered from the disappointment when another message from O'Shaughnessy came in over the wires. This was O'Shaughnessy's report on Huerta's final answer.

The Secretary of the Navy and Mr. Tammey looked very serious as they emerged from the office of the Secretary of State with the report of Mr. O'Shaughnessy, with whom they had spent the night. They had received bad news, but they decided to make any statement until the text of the message had been laid before the Cabinet.

They were instructed not to grant any news to the press until the limits of possibility were reached.

WAITS ON CANADA

British Defence Conference Plans Nearly Ready.

Are Halted Till Our Consent Is Obtained.

London, April 19.—Plans for a defence conference of Great Britain and her Dominions are rapidly assuming form, and will be complete when the consent of Canada is gained. Australia and New Zealand have already announced their desire for such a conference, and since the problem of the Dominions is the chief factor in the smallest developments in the situation, the members of the committee by the meeting, it is believed that Canada will join the other Dominions.

As the result of a trip which the parliamentary committee made to the Dominions, it was found that Australian and New Zealand statesmen believe firmly that the problem of the coming decade will be the maintenance of the British Empire in the Pacific.

More than 500 marines at Pensacola also were ordered to embark on the Mississippi and join the forces in the Atlantic.

In the War Department also there was activity, but no orders were given to the fleet to proceed to the Pacific. It was pointed out to the committee that Japan is making preparations to develop its trade and its influence towards the Philippines and that there is a constant flow of Chinese to the islands of the Pacific.

Japan has been developing its fleet and the growth of the Japanese fleet is becoming unfavorable.

The quiet influence of the fleet in the situation, and the press associations and special correspondents have not yet had time to gain the confidence of the fleet in the Pacific.

Another crowd of suffragettes came to Hyde Park by attempting to make speeches and the police, who were simply making all arrangements so that the army would be forced to look like a military band, to the great discomfiture of the feminist meeting.

The determination of the Government to bring about the conference was evident in the reports from Sir Maurice Pittman, who has been advising the Commonwealth Government on the matter, and Sir Ian Hamilton, Inspector-General of Overseas Forces.

It has not yet been decided whether the conference will be held in Canada or the United Kingdom, but the idea is growing, and when the meeting is finally held it is likely that the British Dominions will have delegations present.

Australia and New Zealand have not taken kindly to the suggestion that the conference be held in Canada.

Sir Edward Grey, Foreign Minister of the Admiralty, in his speech introducing the naval estimates, that the safety of two countries would be secured by the Anglo-German alliance.

William Ferguson Massey, Prime Minister of New Zealand, said:

ABROAD PLANES LOADED.

During the afternoon instructions were sent to the navy aviators at Pensacola to embark with all their equipment at once for Canada, in preparation of the forthcoming connection of the church with the House of Commons.

The suffragettes sang their familiar chant and shouted at Canon Carew while he was addressing the House of Commons.

He said something about the pump feeding of the militant prisoners in Holloway and other jails.

The women were roughly handled and often had to be assisted to the arrival of the police reinforcements.

It is reported that the most valuable art works in the public museums are to be removed to Canada.

They are to be packed in cases to be taken by "triplex safety class."

A French invention composed of two layers of plate glass enclosed a sheet of transparent paper.

It is claimed that a violent blow merely "stars" and does not shatter the glass, while a bullet would not penetrate it.

Some of the art works in the National Portrait Gallery and the South Kensington Museum and Shakespeare Hall are already protected in this manner.

U. S.-BRITISH PACT

British Ambassador and Secretary Bryan Confer.

Washington, April 19.—Sir Cecil Spring-Rice and Secretary Bryan yesterday discussed the outline of the peace commission treaty to bind the United States and Great Britain to submit to a commission for examining and settling the cause of the war, which may not yield to diplomatic adjustment.

The Ambassador and he immediately declared that the incident was closed.

He invited Mr. Tammey to call a special session of the Cabinet at 10:30 o'clock to-morrow morning and make arrangements for a joint session of the two governments.

Wilson agreed that the officials in Washington would telegraph to request the latest move by Huerta as an effort further to embarrass this Government to open the way for a controversy.

Secretary Bryan expressed satisfaction with the British suggestion to adopt as the basis for the peace commission the one which the British-American fleet had made to the two countries, which may not yield to diplomatic adjustment.

The Ambassador and he visited the Secretaries of State a tentative draft of the convention as prepared in the British Foreign Office.

CASE OF CAUSE AND EFFECT?

Magistrate Expresses a Very Strong View.

GIRLS GOING WRONG

Because Disorderly Houses Have Been Closed.

After sending a young girl to the Magistrate (Reformatory) for an indefinite period this morning, the Police Magistrate turned Cale Smith and asked: "Will all the disorderly houses in the city be suppressed?"

"Well, that is a difficult question to answer," replied the Magistrate. "Well, returned the Magistrate, "I am of the opinion that they have, and I can see the effects of it, and have for the past few months, the girl in question has been a Paddy's Pickle." The Magistrate added: "Gale says that she had been watching her actions for the past three months, and that she would stop me on the street and go away with them in automobiles and cars. They also added that she went into Chinese cafes and stayed for lengthy periods."

When William and Edith Cuthbert were arraigned on a charge of child desertion, the back benches, and also the officials, were given a surprise. When asked if he was the complainant in the case, Robert Hales, 47 Main street west, was the father of child. Hales had been told by his son to tell him he was deserting when the girl suddenly cried, "He has a right to look after it, he is its father." The Magistrate asked: "What is he?" He was refused to answer, whereupon both the prisoners were given their liberty and informed by the Magistrate that there was no reason to treat Hales as a criminal.

A meeting of the unemployed of the city was held yesterday afternoon at the home of Samson Allard, 10 Burlington street, and one of those to occupy a seat on the platform was Ward Picton, 462 Sherman avenue north, who was concerned of high importance in the business of bookkeeping that he was closely connected with the situation as he opened his remarks. Unfortunately he had consulted John Harley, before going to the meeting, and was soon lost in thought himself and drifting from the vital subject he made several remarks which one man took as meaning the meeting was called out and Picton was removed bodily from the room. When he got outside he picked up his coat and hat and set off on a walk. A short time later he was found lying on the sidewalk, unconscious, and was taken to hospital.

George King, Esq., 445 King street north, Frank Hooper, James Lutes, north, and James George, Hunter street east, were fined $5 for spilling sake wine.

Annie Dodderidge, the young woman who was arrested with a Majorie Sweene a week ago on a vagrancy charge, was this morning sent to the Magistrate (Reformatory) for an indefinite period.

Cross Attorney Washington explained that the chief witness against Patrick Galvin in a liquor case had left the city, and he did not think that the case would proceed.

Eugene Johnson, 51 James street north, was recently charged with assaulting his husband, but such was the case this morning, when Mrs. Clara Jacobson, Locke street north, was sent to jail to keep her hands off her man.

May Keen, a colored servant, residing at 185 Casson street east, was arrested last night on a vagrancy charge. The girl, who was working, had to pay ten cents off her later, demanding more. She was remanded for one day.

Ray Molyneaux, the erstwhile baseball pitcher, was again remanded for a week when assigned this morning on a charge of bigness.

—It is over three months since Thomas J. Stewart was elected to any job with a salary assigned. How would tombs inspecto do?

If you are not now a member of the Liberal Club you might go up and join. Those Christmas resolutions of yours if you still have them, should be pretty good to swear by this time.

Then the School Trustees might want $300 a year also. I must look up the Act.
